HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL

DAY

27 JANUARY

What is Holocaust Memorial Day?

Holocaust Memorial Day is a national commemoration day in the United Kingdom and around the world:

- It is dedicated to the remembrance of the Jews and others who suffered in the Holocaust, under Nazi persecution.
- It was first held on the 27th January 2001 and has been on the same date every year since.
- 27th January marks the anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau, the largest Nazi death camp.
- HMD is for everyone and each year across the UK, thousands of people come together to learn more about the past and take action to create a safer future.
- HMD reminds us that prejudice and the language of hatred must be challenged by us all to ensure that genocide never happens again.

Genocide literally means the annihilation of a race.

The United Nations Convention of 1948 defines the crime of genocide as “acts committed to destroy in whole or in part a national, ethnical, racial or religious group...”.

#STANDTOGETHER

ARE YOU A BYSTANDER OR AN UPSTANDER?

Learning from HMD and DRIVE...

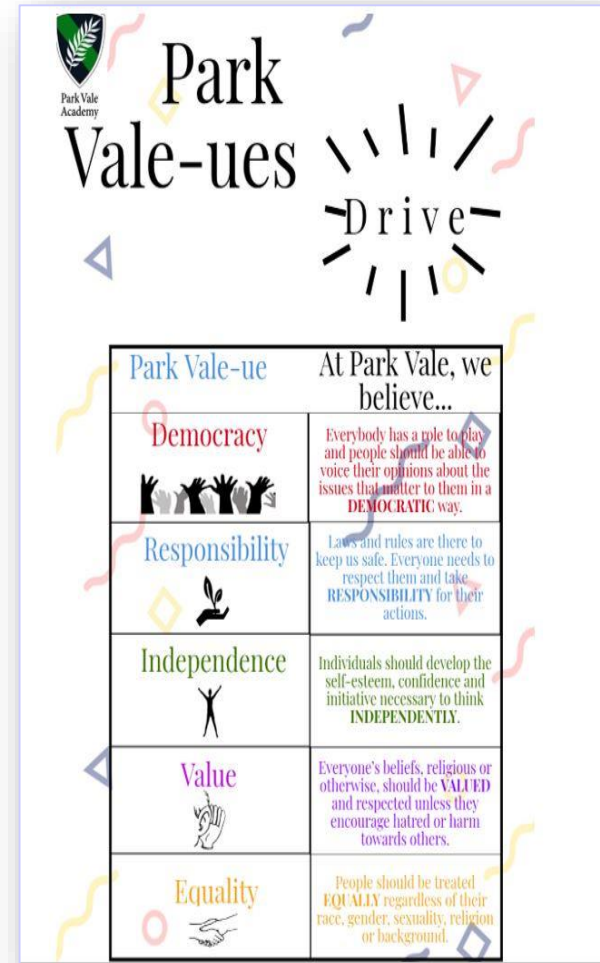

Democracy involves allowing people to have a voice and the freedom to say no to what is not right.

Responsibility encourages us to peacefully stand against what is unjust.

Independent thinking allows us to think for ourselves and not follow the crowd when the crowd are wrong.

Valuing people and respect for each others beliefs is important but we should not support beliefs that cause hatred and harm.

Equality means treating people equally and respecting people for who they are.
It is the right thing to do and prevents prejudice and discrimination from thriving.

Will you be an upstander in your generation...?

Independence 	Individuals should develop the self-esteem, confidence and initiative necessary to think INDEPENDENTLY .
Value 	Everyone's beliefs, religions or otherwise, should be VALUED and respected unless they encourage hatred or harm towards others.
Equality 	People should be treated EQUALLY regardless of their race, gender, sexuality, religion or background.
